

Conversation starters

How do your children usually respond when you ask them how their day went? I know I am often given the silent treatment. It is such a big question and let's face it, quite boring.

Test out these fun conversation starters at mealtimes. You could cut them out, put them in an envelope and take it in turns to pull one out. You can make up your own too!

What was the best part about your day today?

Did anything happen to make you laugh today?

If you could be any animal, what would it be? And why?

If you could build a house in space, what would it look like?

Did you learn anything new today?

Would you rather fly like a bird or swim like a dolphin?

Would you rather be able to talk to animals or speak every language in the world?

If you could have any superpower, what would it be and why?

If our pet (or a stuffed animal) could talk, what do you think it would say?

If you could turn into any animal for a day, which one would you choose?

Would you rather live in a treehouse, a castle, or a spaceship?

If you opened a restaurant, what would you serve? What would you name it?
